Jeff Alexander joins Plant Products' team

Jeff is a graduate of Seneca College's - golf course technician program, Cornell University & Ohio State University's - turf managers short programs and recently Western University's - the super university at the Ivey Business School.

Jeff has 32 years' experience in golf course management and brings a wealth of knowledge to Plant Products. This includes 7 years as an assistant superintendent at Credit Valley Golf and Country Club and Kleinburg Golf Club. The last 24 years he has held the position of golf course superintendent at Parry Sound Golf and Country Club.

Jeff also spent several years as a director and as a past president of the Ontario Golf Superintendents Association and Georgian Bay Golf Superintendents Association. Jeff is looking forward to starting his new position as technical sales representative for Plant Products and helping turf managers achieve results and reach their goals.

Welcome Jeff!
